Robert L. Hayes was arrested in the post-office at St. Louis as he called for a decoy letter mailed in an effort to apprehend the sender of blackmailing missives addressed to officials of the Wabash railroad, containing threats to dynamite the tracks unless $5,000 were paid to the writer. Hayes is said to be a Lebanon, Ky., baker.

A pretty mid-summer social function was the charming reception for which Mrs. James C. Pickett was the hostess. Thursday afternoon at West View, their stately old country place north of town.

The occasion, in honor of Mrs. Pickett's daughters, Mrs. William Tribble, of Stanford, Ky., and Mrs. Joe Augustus Pickett, of Washington, Ind., the latter a recent bride in the family, afforded the guests an opportunity of meeting the visitors.

The interior of the spacious old home was beautifully decorated in a profusion of blossoms and foliage, the stairway being interwoven in green, studded with crimson poppies. The alcove in the rear of the hall furnished a prettily adorned recess for the punch bowl, presided over by Misses Francis and Ellen Osborne.

The dining room was aglow with candles, crimson ramblers and festoons of southern smilax. The central embellishment of the table was an enhancement of smilax and rambler roses with candle-labrum on a rare piece of Mexican lace. A beautifully laden rose basket, suspended from the center ceiling lent an artistic finish.

A delicious ice course, with berries and cake, mints and salted nuts furnished a delightful repast.

Mrs. Pickett wore a most becoming gown of gray aolian cloth.

Mrs. Tribble's costume was a handsome ashen of roses messaline, with lace accessories.

Mrs. J. Augustus Pickett wore her wedding gown, a director's model in the Catawba shades.—Maysville Daily Bulletin.

Collins, and is very popular socially throughout the blue grass. Her fiancé is a prominent business man. The date of the wedding has not been announced, but it is understood that it will take place in the near future.—Richmond Register. Miss Collins has visited Miss Sara Dunn here, and is a relative of J. M. Alverson, of this office.

The Kansas City Star of June 6 has the following account of the wedding in Kansas City, of Miss Catherine Elizabeth Cooper, of that city, and Mr. Thomas Barrett Carson, of Ponca City, son of J. E. Carson, formerly of this county: On Wednesday evening, June 2, at 8:30 o'clock, a simple but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cannon, when Miss Katherine Elizabeth Cooper became the bride of Mr. Thomas Barrett Carson, of Ponca, Okla. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. S. M. Brown, of the Michigan Avenue Baptist church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. Mrs. Wilton E. Bacon played the wedding music. The bride wore a white messaline semi-princess gown, en train. The tulle veil was fastened with a wreath of lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Little Helen Katherine White, a niece of the bride, was her only attendant and carried the ring in a lily. She wore a dainty white embroidered frock with pink ribbons. The ceremony room was decorated with ferns, pink carnations and festoons of smilax and pink tulle. The reception hall, library and dining room were done in ferns and baskets of pink carnations and smilax. Miss Lucille Dawes presided at the punch bowl.

Men Past Fifty In Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint. Pennington, of Stanford.

Trouble Makers Ousted.

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his Dyspepsia and Indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

The governor pardons, before trial, a Marshall county man, giving as his reason that the man had assisted in suppressing "night riding." MORE TAXES SUGGESTED.

The president asks Congress in a special message to incorporate in its tariff bill a provision to tax the earnings of corporations and adopt a resolution looking to an amendment of the constitution to permit the levying of an income tax without interference from the States. As both of these are new propositions for revenue, it should be remembered that they would not be necessary in these piping times of peace, but for the criminal extravagance of the party in power. With the tariff being revised upward instead of downward, as Mr. Taft explained that that plank of the platform meant, but which Aldrich and his co-conspirators now say it did not mean, it seems to be the height of audacity to call for other sources of revenue, but the profligacy of Congress demands it and the people go on like dumb driven cattle, accepting everything that is done and raising no protest no matter what is put upon them. They had a chance last November to return to an economically administered government. They threw it away and by a majority vote reiterated confidence in the G. O. P. If the majority alone had to suffer for their party's reckless extravagance, it would be all right, but unfortunately the rest of us poor devils get it in the neck worse than they. Mayhap, in the sweet by-and-by the people will awaken to the danger of keeping the republican party too long in power.

The death of Miss Lizzie Haldeman, daughter of Col. and Mrs. W. B. Haldeman, of Louisville, is peculiarly sad. She was touring Europe with her parents and while in Paris was taken with what proved to be appendicitis. An operation was performed and she died from the effects of it. She was 22 years of age and her death occurred on the anniversary of her birth. Those who visited Crab Orchard Springs, where her parents spent their summers 10 or 15 years ago, will remember the bright and pretty little girl who always responded when asked her name, "Miss Lizzie," and every body called her so. She grew into a beautiful woman and was the joy of her dotting parents. Their visit to the Old World was planned for several months yet, but they have already started on their mournful trip home with the body of their loved one. May the good Lord console and comfort them.

EVERYBODY who has visited the Executive building at Frankfort for the last 50 years, till the advent of Willson, remembers the polite old darkey who guarded the doors either of the auditor's or governor's offices. He was as well known and almost as favorably as the occupant of the offices he served. The old Negro's name was Jas. Coleman and he is dead. He was a democrat and the failure of his party to land is said to have hastened his death. He was one of the old time Negroes, now so rapidly disappearing, the more's the pity. Gov. Beckham and other ex-officials attended the funeral of their old friend.

THE Live Stock Association of Kentucky in special session gave hearty endorsement to the Croan dog tax law, which has proved a boon to sheep raisers and helped the cause of education largely besides. The only utterance in Gov. Willson's first message to the Legislature which was not veiled in a superabundance of verbiage and ambiguity was, "I recommend the repeal of the dog tax law." Like many of his other recommendations, the body properly ignored that one, and with the growing popularity of the law, we hope and believe it has come to stay.

COME to think of it Mrs. Howard Gould wasn't so extravagant after all in the matter of dress. She only spent a little over $100 a day every day in the year for it, and while she says she never wore the same dress the second time at the same place, she wore some of them at other places once a piece. As it is exceedingly bad form to wear the same dress twice, Mrs. Gould deserves sympathy for being forced to do so.

MR. BRYAN says he does not desire to be a candidate for the Senate, nor does he expect to be, preferring to do his work as a private citizen. His admiring countrymen, however, would like to see him adorn that body to preach pure and undefiled democracy. Perhaps Mr. Bryan's absence of desire to go to the Senate is the knowledge of the fact that he would as a rule, cast his pearls before swine.

THE Lexington Leader is a credulous old soul. It says that Gov. Willson will "probably" appoint a republican successor to the deceased democratic member of the railroad commission. If any one will point out a case wherein our rabidly non-partisan governor with his mouth has ever acted except in a partisan manner, he will please march up and get the prize.

THE story that they are building a mammoth home for drunkards in Maine is doubtless a very weak invention of the enemy.

As the State Journal predicted, there was no indictment found in the attempted assassination of Ed Callahan in Breathitt. The summoning of a grand jury, Judge Adams' onslaught on the press in his charge and the effort to make believe that the criminal should be discovered and punished, were all for outside public consumption apparently. The insiders knew it was all a bluff. If this state of affairs is to continue the county will be more than ever entitled to the name of Bloody Breathitt, with every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost.

SENATOR ALDRICH is trying to make the people believe again that in putting high duties on clothing and other necessary articles the foreign manufacturers and importers are paying them, but this exploded absurdity can't be worked any longer. The consumer is catching on from strong object lessons that he pays the duty as well as the freight, while the trusts rake in the profits.

WE do not want to subject ourselves to the charge of contempt of court, but it looks very much to a layman that our highest State court is beginning to dodge the issue or delay the evil day as long as possible by adjourning till Sept. 20 without deciding the State Racing Commission, after the case had been before it so long. There seems to be a good deal of politics in the question.

AFTER a thorough investigation of conditions the National House fixed the duty on print paper at $2 a ton, against $6 under the tariff bill. The Senate refused to accept the reduction but split the difference by making it $4 a ton. The paper trust which has been gouging the life out of the publishers, continues its grip on the leaders of the Senate.

THE court of appeals reversed the Mercer county circuit court awarding Col. Jack Chinn $2,500 for the wrongful use of his picture and name recommending a certain patent medicine. We suppose this is on the ground that the colonel is so handsome that he must submit to a division of his good looks.

A MAN named Lord married a woman named Helper in Kansas and the papers headed the notice Lord-Helper. That would be a good head for most of the marriage notices. The woman nearly always gets the worst of it and needs the Lord to Helper.

THERE were 309 deaths and 259 births in Louisville last month. Supposing there is no outsider to settle this, will the Times kindly figure out for an anxious subscriber when the Falls City will become a barren and depopulated waste.

AN Atlanta woman went to jail as hostage for her pet dog's good behavior. She doubtless belongs to the class of female perverts who wouldn't do the same thing for their own child.

THE death of Railroad Commissioner McD. Ferguson gives Gov. Willson a chance to make a very weak body still weaker by the appointment of another republican.

CENTRAL CITY has a citizen named Raney Day and Murray one named Raney Wells. The recent weather must have suited them to a T.

POLITICAL.

William Lorimer, of Illinois, took the oath of office and became United States Senator Friday.

The court of appeals has adjourned for the summer after acting on 313 cases, or 13 less than last term.

The constitutionality of the Sullivan school bill, passed by the last Legislature, was sustained by the court of appeals.

By a vote of 44 to 32 the Senate adopted the Finance Committee's amendment fixing a duty of $4 a ton on print paper.

McD. Ferguson, member of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, died at his home at LaCenter of diabetes. He was 55 years old.

Dr. James P. Wise was given the certificate of nomination for Kenton county's coroner by the Democratic County Committee, defeating Dr. J. P. Riffe, formerly of this county.

In our mention of the republican primary in Pulaski we stated that Frank Hines won the republican nomination for jailer, but we were in error. The honor fell to a man named Silvers.

The Court of Appeals did not pass upon the constitutionality of the State Racing Commission Saturday, as expected, postponing it for oral argument to the third day of the September term.

Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, was made chairman of the Senate Committee on Expenditures in the Navy Department, and appointed to membership of the Committees on Manufactures, Pacific Islands and Porto Rico and Private Land Claims.

Mayor McClellan, of New York City, has received the city's check for $83,576, in payment for his expenditures in the recent fight instituted by William Randolph Hearst, following McClellan's last election. The bill, although itemized, is said to be the first that has passed the finance department in years without vouchers to show exactly how the money was spent.

Three Ideal Farms In One.

35 acres, extra good, near Point Leick, fine residence and three tobacco barns. Our price is the owner's price. No excess contracts. If you want to buy a farm write us or come to see us.

of Bryanville, which has a thriving bank, up-to-date merchants, a good school and a church of large membership, that town being about 9 miles from Lancaster, the county seat of Garrard County, on the Lexington pike. The enterprise of the citizens in that section is further manifested by the fact that they are preparing to establish a Graded School at Bryanville, and if they succeed, which is almost certain, this property will advance from 10 to 20 dollars on the acre, as property has done near Lancaster and other towns, where such schools have been established, keeping the money and children at home and giving them a good education. This picture is not overdrawn, and we invite those looking for a bargain in a home that has all the attractive features, to let us show it to them. This farm is also within four miles of a navigable stream, which is of great advantage for market, than the same distance from a railroad, for it gives cheaper rates and better facilities for transportation to market of all farm products, and live stock can be shipped from one head up to a boat load, while coal and lumber can be purchased at less price. It is down grade to the river, and a good pike.

We positively believe that this land is worth $100 per acre, and yet it is offered at $20 per acre, a whole, if sold at once; however the entire farm is susceptible of an advantageous division into small tracts and we will divide it to suit purchaser and make price on what he wants according to location, improvements, quality and quantity.

MORE OPPORTUNITIES
Yes, we have them—farm lands—in different localities, off the pike and on the pike—improved and unimproved—50 acres—100 acres—200 acres—any number of acres you want, from $25 per acre to $100 per acre. We can suit you. Try us. All bargains of a lifetime. 500 acres extra good—266 acres superior land highly improved. 235 acres, extra good, near Point Leick, fine residence and three tobacco barns. Our price is the owner's price. No excess contracts. If you want to buy a farm write us or come to see us.

THE perfection of real estate, all that is beautiful and desirable in country life, including locality, soil and improvements, is embodied in a farm of 435 acres, adjoining the thriving town of Bryanville, Ky., and near the famous Camp Dick Robinson farm, which sell at over $100 per acre. There are three tracts, with dwellings and improvements on each, suitable for three families desiring to locate on adjoining farms; or, if bought by one party, two houses could be occupied by tobacco tenants. The best equipped barn in the county, is on the premises, having water supplied by a wind-mill. The floors are built as residence flooring, the stalls are large and well constructed, machinery for cutting feed being run by an engine.

Stock scales and a large tobacco barn are among other improvements. The land lies well and is of a high grade, well fenced, well watered a portion of it being matted with blue grass, in gently undulating pastures. Most of the land has been kept in grass and will easily raise 1,500 pounds of hemp, 1,800 pounds of tobacco and 60 to 75 bushels of corn. Such soil is the basis of all value, and the large profit, which it yields on the investment, explains why only the best but the safest investment. This, together with the fact that population is increasing, thereby insuring a continuance, of good prices for farm products, proves that good real estate will continue to advance in price.

Besides the intrinsic value of a home, the locality and surroundings render it more or less valuable. Good roads, good schools, churches and good morals are important factors, in determining the value of a farm, because they contribute to man's substantial happiness, which is the mainspring of human action and the object sought, in every section of our God-favored country. These elements enter largely into the attractiveness and, consequently, the value of this property. It lies on a splendid turnpike for a distance of about one mile, the community consists of the highest grade of citizenship, the people being moral, cultured and exceedingly hospitable. THE court of appeals decided in the case of James E. Daugherty against E. P. Mason, candidates for county clerk in Harrison county, that the action of the county committee is supreme. He filed contest against Mason, who was declared the nominee. Daugherty contended, in the suit which he brought against the committee, that he had not been treated fairly, but the Court of Appeals decided that the action of the county committee must stand.

ROBINSON.—One of the best and most substantial men in Lincoln county passed from life unto death when Mr. Thomas J. Robinson, of Hustonville, breathed his last at an early hour Friday morning. He had not been feeling well for a few days but no one thought his condition serious and his sudden death was a shock to the entire community in which he lived and in which he was highly respected. Neuralgia of the heart is believed to have caused his demise. Mr. Robinson was born in Garrard on Feb. 29, 1813, and just 40 years ago he married Miss Minnie Kauffman, of that county. He came to the West End of Lincoln about the time of his marriage and at once became identified with the business interests and people of that section. For many years he had been a member of the Christian church and for nearly 40 years he served as deacon, treasurer, elder or clerk of his church. He took great interest in church work and up to his last days was a regular attendant of the Sunday school. Deceased was as good a business man as he was a citizen and he left a large estate. Besides farming and trading some in live stock, Mr. Robinson was vice-president and a director of the National Bank of Hustonville and he took great interest in that institution. He will be sadly missed in church and business circles as well as by many friends and relatives. He had no children but his widow is left to feel the loss of a devoted companion of years and much sympathy is felt for her. Mr. Robinson was an uncle of Mrs. J. B. Paxton, of this place, and her father, Mr. A. C. Robinson, is the last member of the large and influential family of that name. Rev. W. S. Willis preached a touching funeral sermon at the late home at 9:30 Sunday morning after which the remains were laid by the side of his brothers and sisters in the Lancaster cemetery.
